Native Education College
Where Learners Become Leaders

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY
EXTERNAL POSTING

Casual Instructor(s), contract

Aboriginal Adult Basic Education (AABE) Program
Main Campus

The NEC Native Education College is a private college for Indigenous learners to live their cultural heritage and realize their true potential. NEC works to strengthen Indigenous communities through accredited programs that lead to employment and higher learning. The Indigenous cultural values in NEC programs are at the core of reconciliation, economic success and a sustainable future for all nations.

AABE students focus on achieving their academic and employment goals while learning and sharing their cultural knowledge and skills. Students work on achieving the BC Adult Graduation Diploma also known as the Adult Dogwood.

NEC is currently seeking casual instructor(s) for the following AABE course:

Human Biology – Advanced
Psychology – Provincial
Education & Career Planning - Provincial

AABE courses are classroom based and developed and taught from an Aboriginal cultural perspective. For course description or further information about the AABE program visit our website.
