

Request for Curriculum Development Contractor(s) Indigenous Land Stewardship (ILS) Program

NEC Native Education College is a private college for Indigenous learners to live their cultural heritage and realize their true potential. NEC works to strengthen Indigenous communities through accredited programs that lead to employment and higher learning. The Indigenous cultural values in NEC programs are at the core of reconciliation, economic success and a sustainable future for all nations.

PURPOSE OF PROJECT

The ILS program requires professional help in curriculum development for ten courses leading to a certificate in Indigenous Land Stewardship. Please e-mail any questions to dtracey@necvancouver.org.

TASKS

Develop an outline, syllabus, lesson plan and evaluation methodology for each of ten courses to be taught during the one-year Indigenous Land Stewardship certificate program. An earlier version of this program included courses teaching Indigenous perspectives on subjects such as Land Stewardship, Ecosystems, Community-based Planning and Leadership. The curriculum developer(s) would be expected to build on the successes of similar courses developed at NEC and elsewhere and also develop new courses to meet the program goal.
