Casual Instructors

Aboriginal Adult Basic Education (AABE) Program

NEC Native Education College is a large private Aboriginal college in Vancouver and also works with First Nations and Aboriginal organizations to deliver programs in locations throughout British Columbia. We strive to combine academic excellence with a strong commitment to First Nations community-based education and the best practices of adult education. Aboriginal Adult Basic Education (AABE) students focus on achieving their academic and employment goals while learning and sharing their cultural knowledge and skills. Students work on achieving the BC Adult Graduation Diploma also known as the Adult Dogwood.

Position Summary:

The Aboriginal Adult Basic Education (AABE) students focus on achieving their academic and employment goals while learning and sharing their cultural knowledge and skills. Students work on achieving the BC Adult Graduation Diploma also known as the Adult Dogwood.

NEC is currently seeking AABE casual instructors for Fundamental Math and First Nation Studies (Intermediate level).

These courses are classroom based and are developed and taught from an Aboriginal cultural perspective. For course descriptions and further information about the AABE program visit our website.

Qualifications:

Any combination of education and work experience as follows will be considered:

- Bachelor of Education Degree or a B.A. with a Provincial Instructor's Diploma, or a Master's Degree in a relevant field;
- Significant teaching experience in working with adults, preferably in the Adult Basic Education field;
- Knowledge of Aboriginal values, communities, and instructional methodology; and
- Aboriginal ancestry or extensive experience working with Aboriginal organizations.

Terms:

Appointment to this position will require a formal criminal record check, the details of which may preclude an offer of employment being finalized. Preference will be given to qualified Aboriginal applicants.

Closing Date:	Monday, February 20, 2012
Starting Date:	February 21, 2012
Hours:	7.5 hours per week per course

Application Details:

Please submit your resume, names of three references from related work experience, and a cover letter outlining your interest and detailing how you meet the above qualifications. Only short listed applicants will be contacted. Address your application to:
