

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY
INTERNAL / EXTERNAL POSTING

Casual Instructor, contract

Indigenous Adult Basic Education (IABE) Program
Main Campus

The NEC Native Education College is a private college for Indigenous learners to live their cultural heritage and realize their true potential. NEC works to strengthen Indigenous communities through accredited programs that lead to employment and higher learning. The Indigenous cultural values in NEC programs are at the core of reconciliation, economic success, and a sustainable future for all nations.

IABE students focus on achieving their academic and employment goals while learning and sharing their cultural knowledge and skills. Students work on achieving the BC Adult Graduation Diploma also known as the Adult Dogwood. NEC is currently seeking a Casual Instructor for the following courses:

Math 040, 062
Computer Studies 080

IABE courses are developed and taught from an Indigenous cultural perspective. For course description or further information about the IABE program visit our website.

Qualifications:

Any combination of education and work experience as follows will be considered:

- Bachelor of Education Degree, or B.A. with Science Major or Master's Degree in a relevant field with a Provincial Instructor's Diploma;
- Significant teaching experience in working with adults, preferably in the Adult Basic Education field;
- Knowledge of Indigenous values, communities, and instructional methodology; and
- Indigenous ancestry or extensive experience working with indigenous organizations.
- Must be proficient with MS Teams and Moodle learning platforms.

Terms:

Appointment to this short-term contract position will require a formal criminal record check, the details of which may preclude an offer of employment being finalized. NEC encourages applications from members of equity-seeking groups. We welcome all applicants, although preference will be given to qualified indigenous applicants.
